

Green infrastructure: connecting the dots

A practical installation & maintenance workshop

Sponsored by Lenexa's Rain to Recreation program
February 18-19, 2010
9 a.m. - 4 p.m., check-in begins at 8:30
Lenexa Conference Center, 11184 Lackman Road

This workshop will demystify the most common components of post-construction stormwater best management practices for contractors who want to get involved with green infrastructure, showing the best ways to plan, bid and care for these bio-engineered systems.

FEE $20
(lunch included)

OPTIONAL TOUR Friday, February 19, 9 a.m. to noon
$10, tour bus included

From basic design elements to plan sheets and even the construction materials, this workshop will illuminate all the angles of installing and caring for green infrastructure, whether it's a vegetated swale or a bioretention cell. Green infrastructure isn't difficult to install—it's just different—and this seminar will help give you the tools you need to make that distinction.
